Master Course Syllabus

Course Discipline and Number: HSTY 201
Course Title: American History to 1877

Year: 2018-2019
Credit Hours: 3

Attendance Policy: To maintain good grades, regular attendance in class is necessary. Absence from class is considered a serious matter and absence never excuses a student from class work. It is the responsibility of all instructors to distribute reasonable attendance policies in writing during the first week of class. Students are required to comply with the attendance policy set by each of their instructors. Students are not penalized if they are unable to attend classes or participate in exams on particular days because of religious beliefs, in accordance with Chapter 161, Section 224-a of the Education Law of the State of New York. Students who plan to be absent from classroom activity for religious reasons should discuss the absence in advance with their instructors. See college catalog for more information.

Services for Students with Disabilities: It is the College's policy to provide, on an individual basis, appropriate academic adjustments for students with disabilities, which may affect their ability to fully participate in program or course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities should contact the Coordinator of Access and Equity Services, to discuss their particular need for accommodations. All course materials are available in alternate formats upon request.

Course Description

This is a study of the American people from the point of European contact to the end of the Reconstruction period. Selected issues emphasized include the impact of European intervention on Native American civilizations, the development of the American republic, westward expansion, immigration, economic and religious ideals, the institution of slavery, sectionalism, early social reform movements including women's rights and abolition, and the war between the states. HSTY 201 fulfills the SUNY General Education American History requirement. Prerequisites: Prior completion or concurrent enrollment in ENGL 100, MATH 090, and RDNG 116 if required by placement testing. 3 Cr. (3 Lec.) Fall and spring semesters.

Course Context/Audience

This course is part of the Liberal Arts/Social Science Program. It fulfills the SUNY General Education requirement in American History and satisfies TC3 General Education goal #10 in many degree programs. It is appropriate for students with a general interest in American History or for a serious student of history.

Basic Skills/Entry Level Expectations

Writing: WC College level writing skills are required. See course co-requisites or pre-requisites.

Math: M1 Taking MATH 090 (if needed) – Course requires limited use of very basic mathematical skills.

Reading: R3 Course may be taken concurrently with RDNG 116.

Course Goals

1. Students will develop an appreciation of history as a discipline.
2. Students will reach a greater understanding of past events and achieve an increased awareness of how history is written (historiography).
3. Students will comprehend how and why events occurred or how ideas developed rather than simply memorize factual information.
